...und das Lamm schrie: HURZ! No, no, don't be afraid! Milestone is still written completely (nearly) in english! HURZ is just the word with fits to this issue! Six days of writing, test-printing, correcting and waiting are over now. I think I slept about 25 hours in these days (every night to 3 o'clock writing... HURZ). And then all these problems... Today (Thursday, 13.02.) I still didn't got a cover!! But the lazy Dave promised to send it today (normally it must arrive tomorrow). I still didn't got the comments for the charts. But also GHG promised to send them today... We'll see. Well I'm also waiting for some latest news (normally GHG wanted to call me...). Still page 35 is empty and I still don't know what to put there (except the competition). Hmm. Its hard to write a mag but even harder to write a papermag! You don't know why? Well, if you write a disk-mag you just type the text and save it. But here... HURZ! I must write it, print it, copy it and finally spread it! It's the pure horror (why am I doing this shit? Just for your entertainment? I'm the most stupid guy on earth). And it seems to be that nobody cares about the hard job the papermag-editors do! We got not a single vote! There are many cool papermags (Bullet Proof, Pirates and Replay colour (if it will be published ever) for example) but you can find none of them in any charts! Why? You all enjoy reading these mags, don't you? And its a real hard work to edit papermags! So why don't you give some credits to the editors by voting for those mags. If there are no "Papermag-charts", just vote for us as a diskmag. We won't care about this! But it will give us the certainty that there are some guys outthere who like the work we do! Ok.? I hope to see some papermags next time in any charts! (but DON'T vote for Milestone in Milestone!!! I think it the lamest thing if a mag is only in the mag-charts of itself!! Laaaame! So please do me a favour and don't vote for it in this mag...) Hmm, o.k. A very special thank must sail out to Jens Stroh for printing 30 pages in two days! I know it was terrible... Another special thank must go to Daniel Nungesser who allowed me to copy this issue on their copy-machine. Skip the topic. Well, the most of you might know it... for the others: MILESTONE GOT THREE YEARS OLD on 9.2.1992! Yeah! The very first issue has been published three years ago (if you want to read it (its written in german) just tell it me. I'll send you a copy (only one side) for free! But only if you're one of my (or any other Sunrise-member) contacts!) Hmm, I can't believe how fast time hurries on! We are all only little grains of sand in the changes of time. I think I won't continue with my personal philosophies... (coz' its time to pardey!) Unfortunately we got terrible wheather on 9.2. (and I must write Milestone...) so we (the editorship) weren't able to celebrate this anniversary. I think we'll do this in the next days... when I'm thinking about it: We did it already! We did the alc-test on 8.2.-9.2.! Ha! I'm very sorry to tell you that there'll be no party here in Darmstadt. Just because of too much organizing-work. Again a change of the topic: I joined another group! Yeah! Milestone is finally published under the Sunrise-label! Yoho! Who is Sunrise? Oregon is dead. Long live Sunrise. We rebuild this group together with Dream. Topic-change... (I know that this isn't the best way to organize an editorial but I'm tired and HURZ). Some of you might have read it already: There was a test of Milestone in another big papermag (begins like "bull" ends like "of"). We didn't got that much points (but also the other two papermags didn't got much points). The main-reason are our "lame game and LP-reviews". Hey man, what do you get against LP-Tests?? They are important and interesting to read! Is there anybody outthere who disagree? No (infact no one told it me that he don't like them)! We'll never kick them, coz I like them. About the game-tests: No words anymore. All has been said issues before. Nevertheless he (Dense) put us under the best three papermags in the scene! Yoho! Thanks again (I agree). We'll see what the promised fusion between Bullet Proof and Replay will change in the world of papermags...

Guess what? I'm out of inspiration already (and I wanted to write two sides... haha). HURZ. Some final words about this issue: We got 8 pages of statistics and a Milestone-three-years-report. It might be that some of you don't like it. Do you know how much we are caring about it? This report occupies just extra-pages, because we enlarged this issue to 36 pages (12 more than normal!!!) I hope that u all understand that we MUST write something about our three years birthday (not every mag gets three years old). And its funny to read! Ok.? Accepted? ...and if you don't like it you might f off and by another mag instead of this... Today we got already Friday the 14.02.92 and still no cover and no comments reached me. If they will not come 'til tomorrow I don't know what I'm going to do! A special thank must finally fly out to The Audience/Extreme for sending two cinema and one CD-Test. Thanks! Beside: On page 12 you can read a headline called "Kino-Corner"... there should stand "Cinema-Corner" (coz' Kino is the german word... HURZ) This was all! With a loud "Eye" I'm going to sleep now.

See you later!

Three Years Milestone - A long way

-A review on our history-

done by Torsten Michelmann

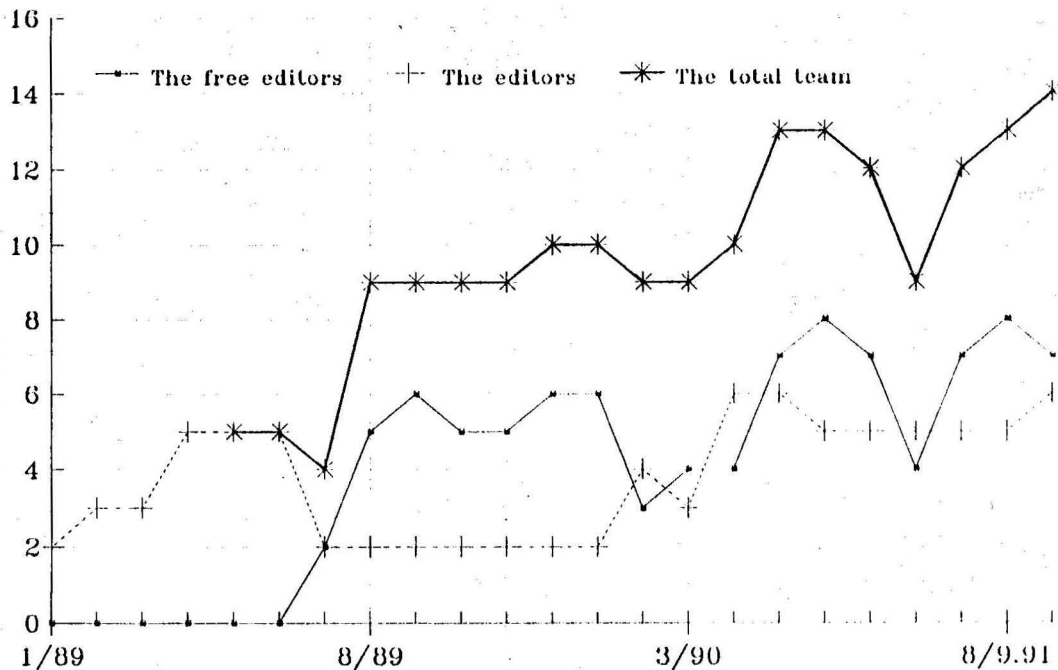

How may I start the discription of this wonderful way of success? Perhaps so. Once there were two people who decided to make a mag. Or so. Two heroic men decided to start a big adventure, to produce an own mag. Their names were Michael (everybody knows him) and Ronald Saame. Michael wanted to make a computer mag and Saame wanted to make a sports mag and so it came, that in the first issue (release date 8/2.89) were two gametests (Microprose Soccer and a production from Michael, The Tennis Game), one article about a group(?), Scheck (Michael didn't like him because he also had a PD-Shop, you surely can imagine, that Michael wrote no good things about him). There was also one picture(!) On this picture was Scheck shown before a wall (a circle with eyes and a lot of dots in the face) and one article about the footballmatch Darmstadt vs Stuttgart (from Saame). You ask whether that was all? Yes, that was all! One side - that was enough. But the next issue came already two days later. The three people who read the mag (Michael, Saame and a person I don't know) had decided that on the big mag market was a place for "MM's Aktueller Softmarkt". With the second issue the mag got also a new name, namely "Der CSV Bote" (C for Computer, S for Sport and V for Video). This issue already had 3 sides. I spare my time to list all articles which were printed. Intersting is perhaps that Michael wrote 90% of the mag (the rest Saame) and that the second side was only on the left side printed. On the other side stood in big letters that there normally would have been a video-test, but because Markus Schneider (his father was the man who copied the mag) hadn't wrote quick enough, there was nothing. On 18.2.89 (Oh yes, at that time it goes punch on punch). In this issue appeared for the first time "Robert's Essen in Deutschland" (Robert is Michael's brother). Arkanoid got the Hit-Sign from Michael (the first game, which had reached that). In the advertisements offers Torsten Hartmann (perhaps known coz of his Kino Corner) everyone who punches Scheck in his face, 5 DM. That was all, what I can write about this issue? We can skip the next issue because there was nothing, which is interesting now. In the next issue (5/89) Michael tested Ultima V with the question: Game of the year 89? At the end he awarded Ultima the title "Adventure of the year 1989". In this issue was for the first time the Hitline. In the next "The first great Basic-Kurs" begins. The game

"Summer Olympiad" was a Flop. The next issue was the begin of a great career. T Michelmann (me) wrote the first letter to the editorship of the "CSV Boten". I think Michael was unconscious for a long time about that shock about a reaction of a reader from his mag! Never before somebody had written a letter to the editor. I was the first (Yes, I'm a bit proud of that). Apart from this great event in the issue no. 7/89 was there also the begin from the computer joke encyclopedia, named "Komm-piu-tern". Just like the book from that Michael copied the text. Before I forget, I suggested in my letter to give the "CSV Bote" a new name, "CFV Bote" (C=Computer, F=Soccer (Fußball in german), V=Video), because all the sportarticles in the mag were about soccer. And so Michael suggested me to write articles. So it came, that in the issue No. 8/89 was the first article from me! It handled about the great tennis tournament in Paris (French Open). This issue was the first (and temporary also the last) in which both sides of the pages were printed and it was the first (and also the last) issue in which there was an article about a game for Atari ST. Michael wrote an article about the origin of the "CSV-Boten", the title was "From the diary of a chef-editor". If the mag is really produced in this way... than good night. I will give you a small insight now: "13. June: (...) Total enervated I gave pressure to T.S., C.M. (he could choose, death or article) and by T.M. (menaceletter). Concerning P.L., only the threat of a carbomb in the lift helped to force him writing articles." And so on... With the next issue the readers had problems. It was so bad copied, that you could read some parts of the mag only bad or simply couldn't read them. The edition was during that by 30. In this issue I wrote my first game test (Fugger). The editorship was enlarged by Dave (I think everybody knows him). The next issue, the mag was now named "C&V Bote". How I had suggested some issues before, it was "only for members of the club". Club means that Michael had opened a PD-Club and only the members of this club got this issue. Exept from this, there was nothing what is important. Oh... wait a moment there was an important thing: I became an editor! Now I was on the same step like Michael (Sorry, but that must be said).

Three Years Milestone - A long way

-A review on our history-

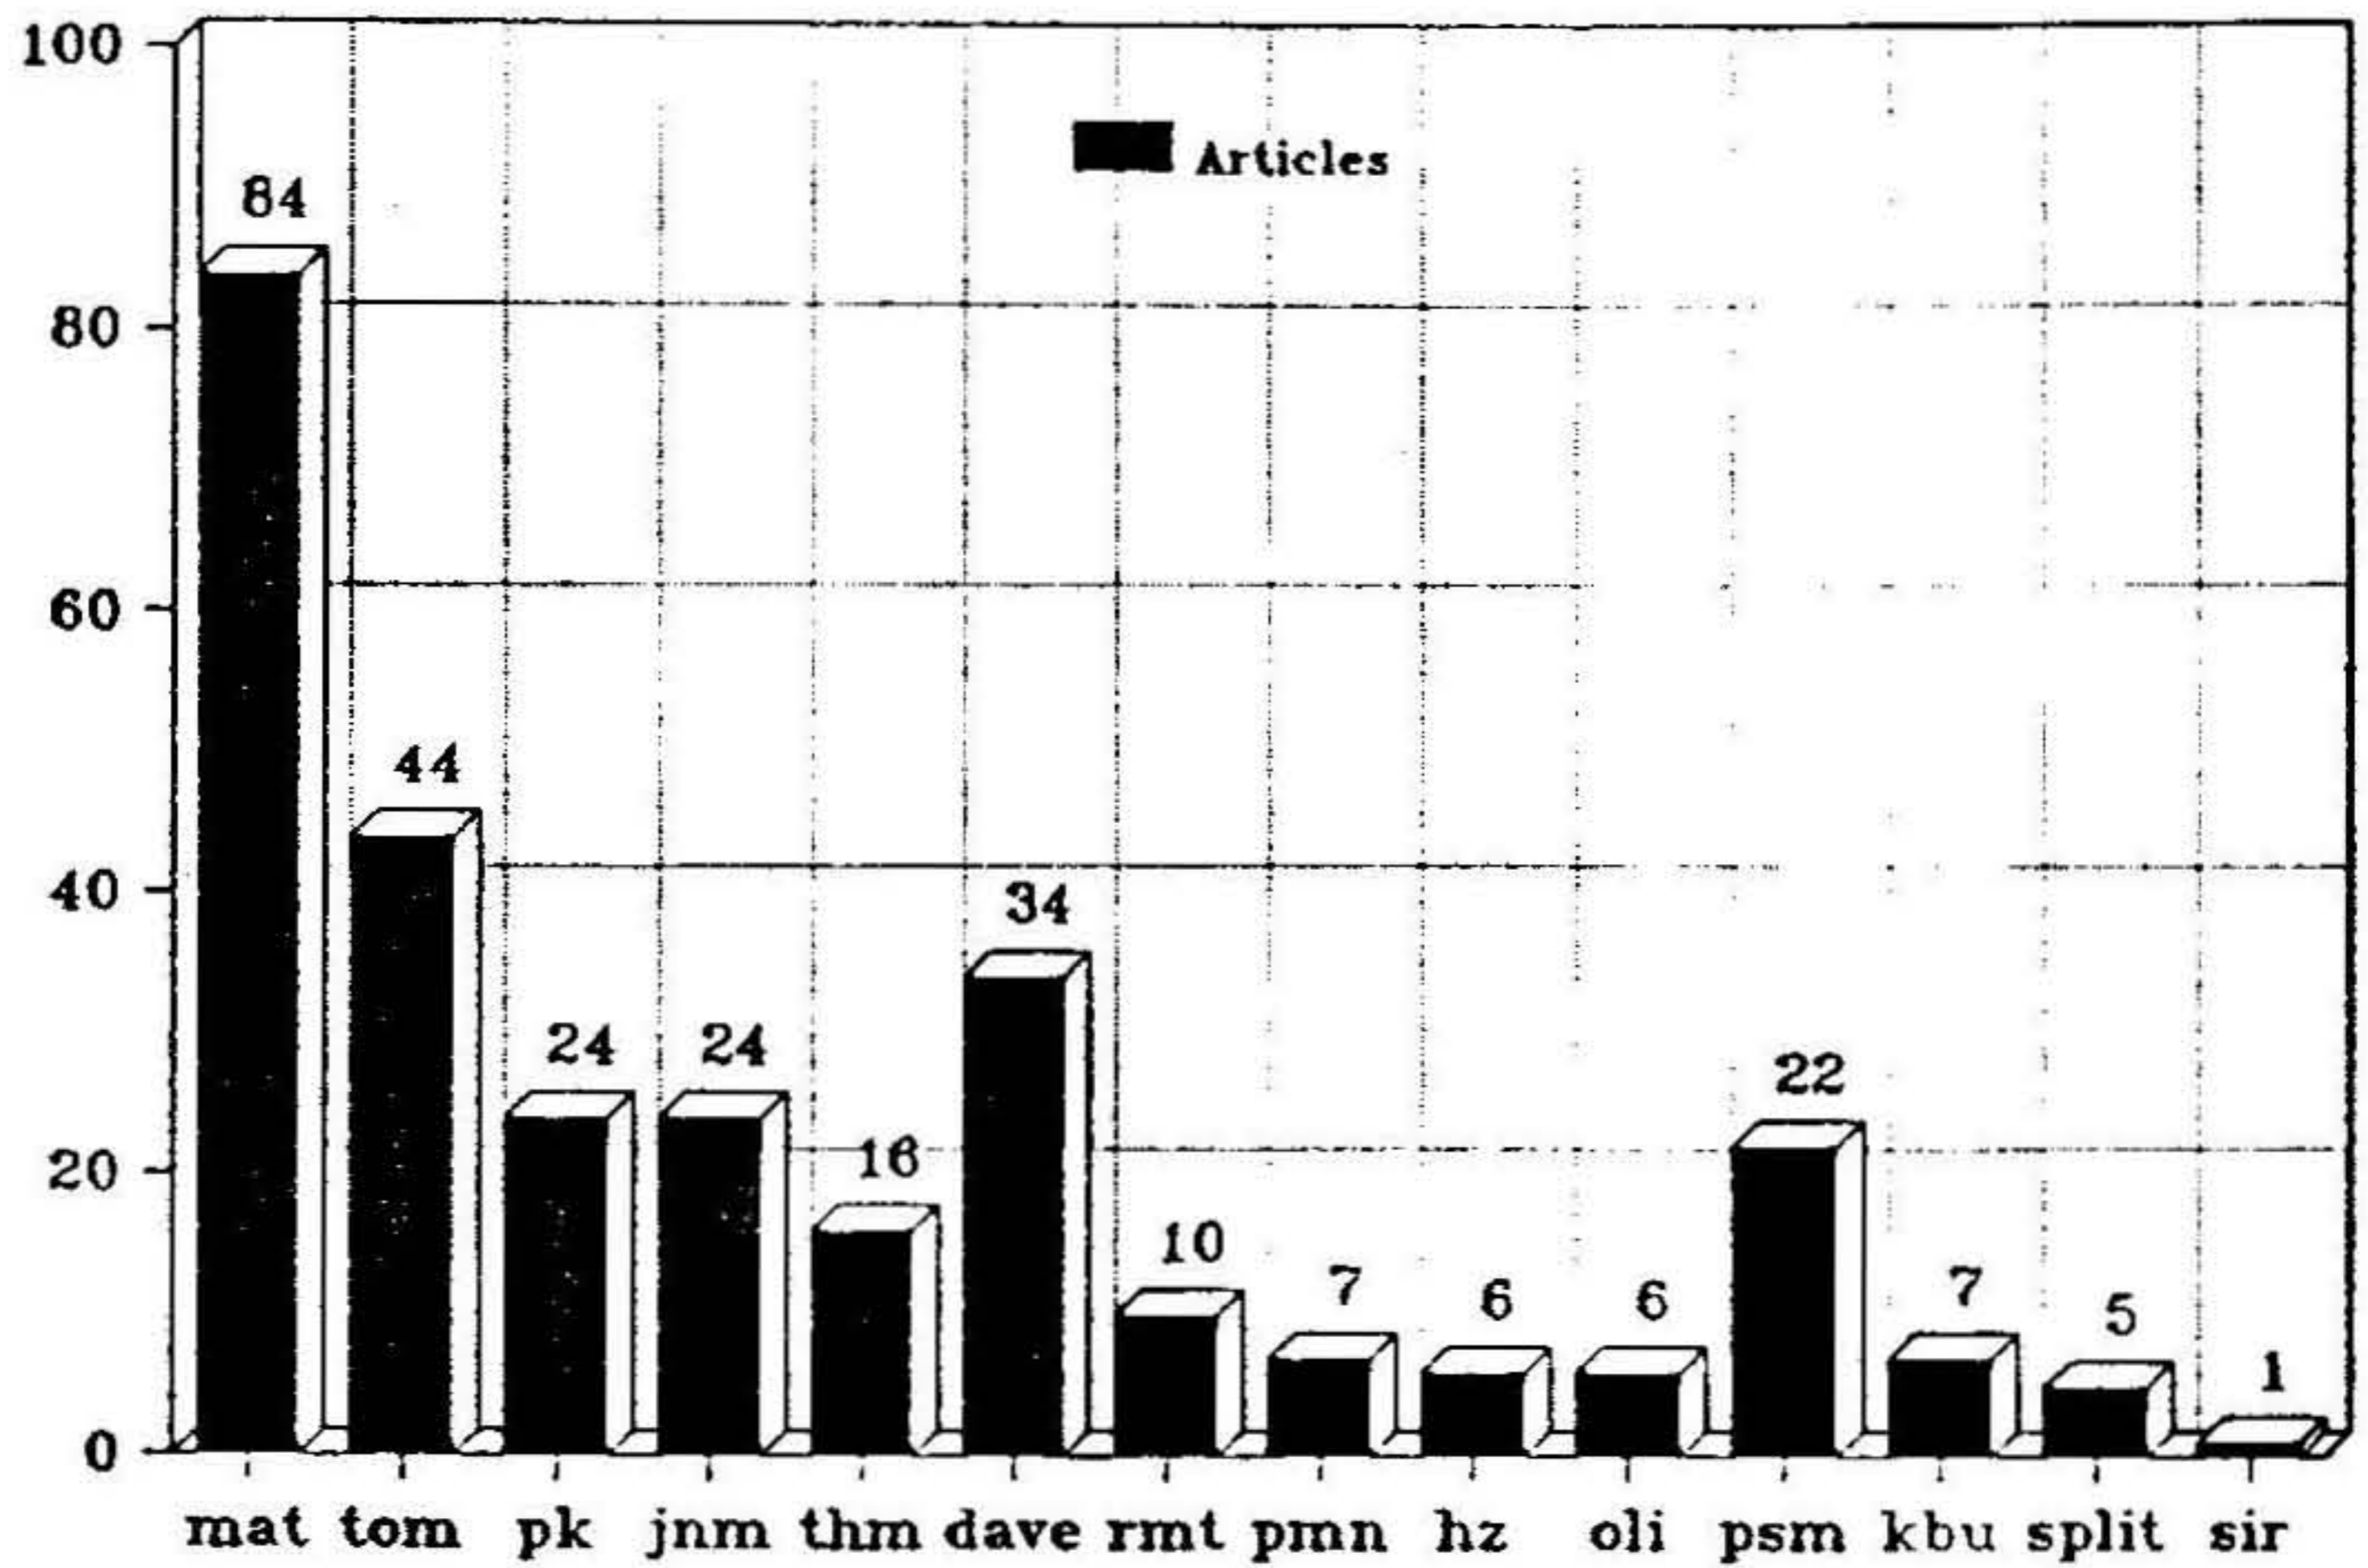

done by Torsten Michelmann

The issue No.11/89 was again for members of the club. In this issue we had many hits, like Oil Imperium and Grand Monster Slam. The next issue was again only for members of the club! Hey, I didn't know that it lasts for such a long time! In this issue was only one hit, ooh! Stunt Car Racer. And we got a new editor: Jens Neumann (jnm). At least: nothing special. Not longer "Only for members of the club" was the next issue, which was in colour! Only one colour (red), but in colour. In this issue we had big problems to get games to test, and so we tested a game named River Raid (I think everybody knows the game. I believe it was spreaded in 1984...) This issue was something special: it was for the first time, that we got paid advertisements. Michael searched people who would paint covers for our great mag... he a build up a competition. And it was for the first time, that the "C&V Bote" cost something: namely 50pf. 50pf was also the price for the next issue which was spreaded on 1.290. In this issue Michael decided to print the rating: key (how he said: more for the editors than for the readers, because the editors gave sometimes curious points. In the issue No.11/89 for example. A certain tom gave the game Buffalo Bill's Wild West Rodeo Show the rating Graphic: 98, Sound 100, Order of Events: 97, Motivation: 98 and Price/Performance 99. I think that comments itself). The next issue was a great step in direction to become professionell. Our mag was now in DIN A5 format and with a cover (A picture from Dave). It got an editorial and Michael had bought the programm Printfox. With this programm Michael could now design the mag much better and easier. In this issue was also shown, how to install a reset on your 64'er and how to install a write/read lamp on your 1541. And in this issue was for the first time a rubric "News and Gossip". The next time was an hard time for our mag. Two weeks before the next issue nobody knew whether it would ever give again a "C&V Bote". But Michael decided (luckily, how I can say now) that it will exists for the next hundred years! In this issue Michael installed the impressum on the last side and our mag costed now 1,50 DM (300% climbed). Yes, yes the inflation... The next issue costed only 1DM. The edition of our mag climbed to 100 pieces and it was now printed by a print-shop. On the second side, which was blanc the time since the mag was produced in DIN A5, were now the contents. In the issue No.11/12-90 we must use the same cover like in our first issue that was printed in DIN A5. Sad, but true. Three sides full of paid advertisements took much of stress away from Michael. Michael wrote in this issue an article about "Play by mails" (Postspiele) and thm wrote for the first time his "Kino-Corner". And so on... In the next issue, the No. 1/2-91, we had two hits: Rings of Medusa and Lords of Doom. In this issue was for the first time the joke corner with jokes about a car called "Manta" and about the Atari ST. I'm sure that you don't know how happy I'm now... only four issues yet about which I must write! Under the editorial of the next issue was a photo, on which two of our editors are looking TV. The extraordinary? They wear 3D-glasses on their noses and got beer bottles (Schmucker) in their hands. For our readers who don't know what the german TV shows, where you can use 3D-glasses: There is a strip show named "Tutti Frutti" and another programm (Leo's Magazin). They said both that they'd looked that other programm, but I doubt on that. Apart from this photo in this issue were also tests, jokes, the evaluation of the Votesheet from the last issue... I didn't mention that? Sorry! Ok, let's go on. Pmn started to write his Demo (P)Reviews and on the last two sides was an IBM-Corner. With the next issue our edition climbed on 350 pieces. Yes we made it, we are now in the scene!!! The effect was that we had a report of the Horizon Easter Party, much of gametests and more as one side "News and Gossip". Not to forget: the printing quality of our mag climbed about 100%, because Michael discovered that my printer can print in the N1.Q-Mode of Printfox. With the next issue the mag changed again his name, and was now named MILESTONE. With the name changed also the contents a bit. Now there weren't as much gametests as before but more reports about other things. For example the reports about the copy partys from Elicma and from Bochum. Besides that a report with the sonorous name "...and they come to fetch you", where a scene dude discribed his eperience with the police. And now, after more than 9 hours of recherching in old issues and in my dictionary and writing it is nearly made. Now I will describe you the last issue. The last issue was the first, which was written in English. As special highlights were in this issue an interview with the great Chaos Computer Club. We are the first mag, that managed to get an interview with the leader of this overall known club. Other reports handled about Venlo, Bocholt and also another interview, this time with Excorcist of Chaos. A new chapter named "Did you know, that" was presented. Yeah, it's done! The first great review ends. I hope you liked it and the text was a bit entertaining (and not so hard to read). Now I must say good bye for the moment. I wish you a wonderful day with our anniversary issue. Good bye.

JFK - John F. Kennedy - Tatort Dallas

USA 1991/ Regie: Oliver Stone

Actors: Kevin Costner, Walter Matthau uva.
The Oscar-Winner and patriot plays again an american trauma: the death of Kennedy in November 1963. In a perfect mix from documentary and polithriller he plays a undaunted public prosecutor, which searches for the real backround men in the US-establishment. For Stone is the death of JFK the beginning of the end of the american history. Good but long!
Rating: 4 out of 5

Addams Family

USA 1991/ Regie: Barry Sonnenfeld

Actors: Anjelica Houston, Raul Julia uva.
A little bit different, these Addams: Father Gomez likes to be torment, mother Martina is a very good poison mixer and the kids like to play execution with a guillotine. In the USA is this family since the 60's a much-lover cartoon- and TV-series. With a big expense was their cruel-funny everyday live made for the cinema. It is recommend to bring sense for black humour, if you watch it.
Rating: 4 out of 5

Iron Maze

Regie: Hiroaki Joshicks

Actors: Bridget Fonda
This is a very labyrinthic story. The young japanese millionaire Junish Lugita comes with his wonderful wife to Transilvania, where he wants t furnish an amusement-park. But there Lugita becomes almost killed. The inquiry of the police results an untransparent puzzle of adultery, jealousy, false statements and lies. This almost mystic crome is a remake of a short story which was the copy of the succesful Kurosawa-film "Rushomon".
Rating: 3 out of 5

The wonderful tate

Regie: Jodie Foster

Actors: Jodie Foster, Adam Hunn-Byrd, Dianne Wiert
For the birthday of his mother he writes a complete opera. Fred Tate, seven years old seems to be a wonderchild. But mother wants to grow him as a normal boy and the psychologist Jane Gierson wnat's him in a special school. A kind of war about the boy begins
Rating: 3 out of 5

A pope for kissing

Regie: ?

Actors: Robbie Coltrane
The story: a criminal cardinal, his currupt friend and ther compliant man of straw want to be the bosses of the Vatikan. But due to a mistake, is the brave patre Allinizi chosen for the pope. And soon he isn't sure for his life. A film with black humour and slapstick.

Rumble on the beach-Concert

Diz is da report if da "Rumble on the beach"-Concert in Freiburg on da 27.1.92.
As I went on, it was about 8.15 pm and I was fully drunken, coz we passed our time in sum "pubs"... But da concert was announced at 9 pm but they started (as usually) later, at about 10 pm. As they started, only about 200 guys were there, but more and more entered. Da first two songs were of course 100% Pogo, but nobody wanted to go on. So they had to play their "purple rain" first, and then we went on!! They became better and better. Some songs of their new LP weren't bad, but da old ones ruled as ever!! So they started a "Square-Dance"-Competition and da best ones very invited to come up to da group and received some free-beer. Unfortunately, I wasn't one of them!! But then sume psychos came up and all da younger ones (like me) went some steps back, coz on da last "Flintsontes"-Concert they injured a friend of me very hard!! So I stopped to dance, but da concert went on. Da guitar-player jumped into da dancing guys and played while "poging"!! Then he jumped on a chair and played a fab' solo! So da concert stayed cool and at the end, the folks wanted to hear "Rumble on the beach" (the song) and they agreed, but we had to sing da beginning! (ouhh no, poor ears!) At least, they were better than 'Skid Row', I think!! (but thats MY opinion).

(Rantanplan/Trax)

(Ed: This is like it should be: He sende a report without being asked for! I hope that some more guys will follow his example! Thanks again!!)

JOKE

As we don't want to be the reason for any kind of wars, we printed no group-name! Everybody can fill in what he wants. O.k.?

CHARTS

This time we received about 90 Vote-Sheets (I didn't count them exactly)! This is a good result. This time the charts are quite objective, I think. We got a new category: Disk-Cover-Designer. Hope that you'll all vote for it! Latest comment: The fucking post didn't manage it to bring the chart-comments in time to me. I'm sorry for this, but I'm not in the mood to write anything! Just enjoy:

On this side you can find the ONLY chart, which exists since THREE years in this mag (except the very first and issue 12/90). Our fabulous HITLINE (the all time greatest games). And for the last time a chart, which accompanied us through two and a half year (snif): The Flop Five (the all time WORST games). I always thought, that this chart was a cool and original idea... but you decided another way... now, its time to say good bye. Two and a half year Flop Five. All gone forever... the show must go on:

As there weren't any votes, I put my personal list in...

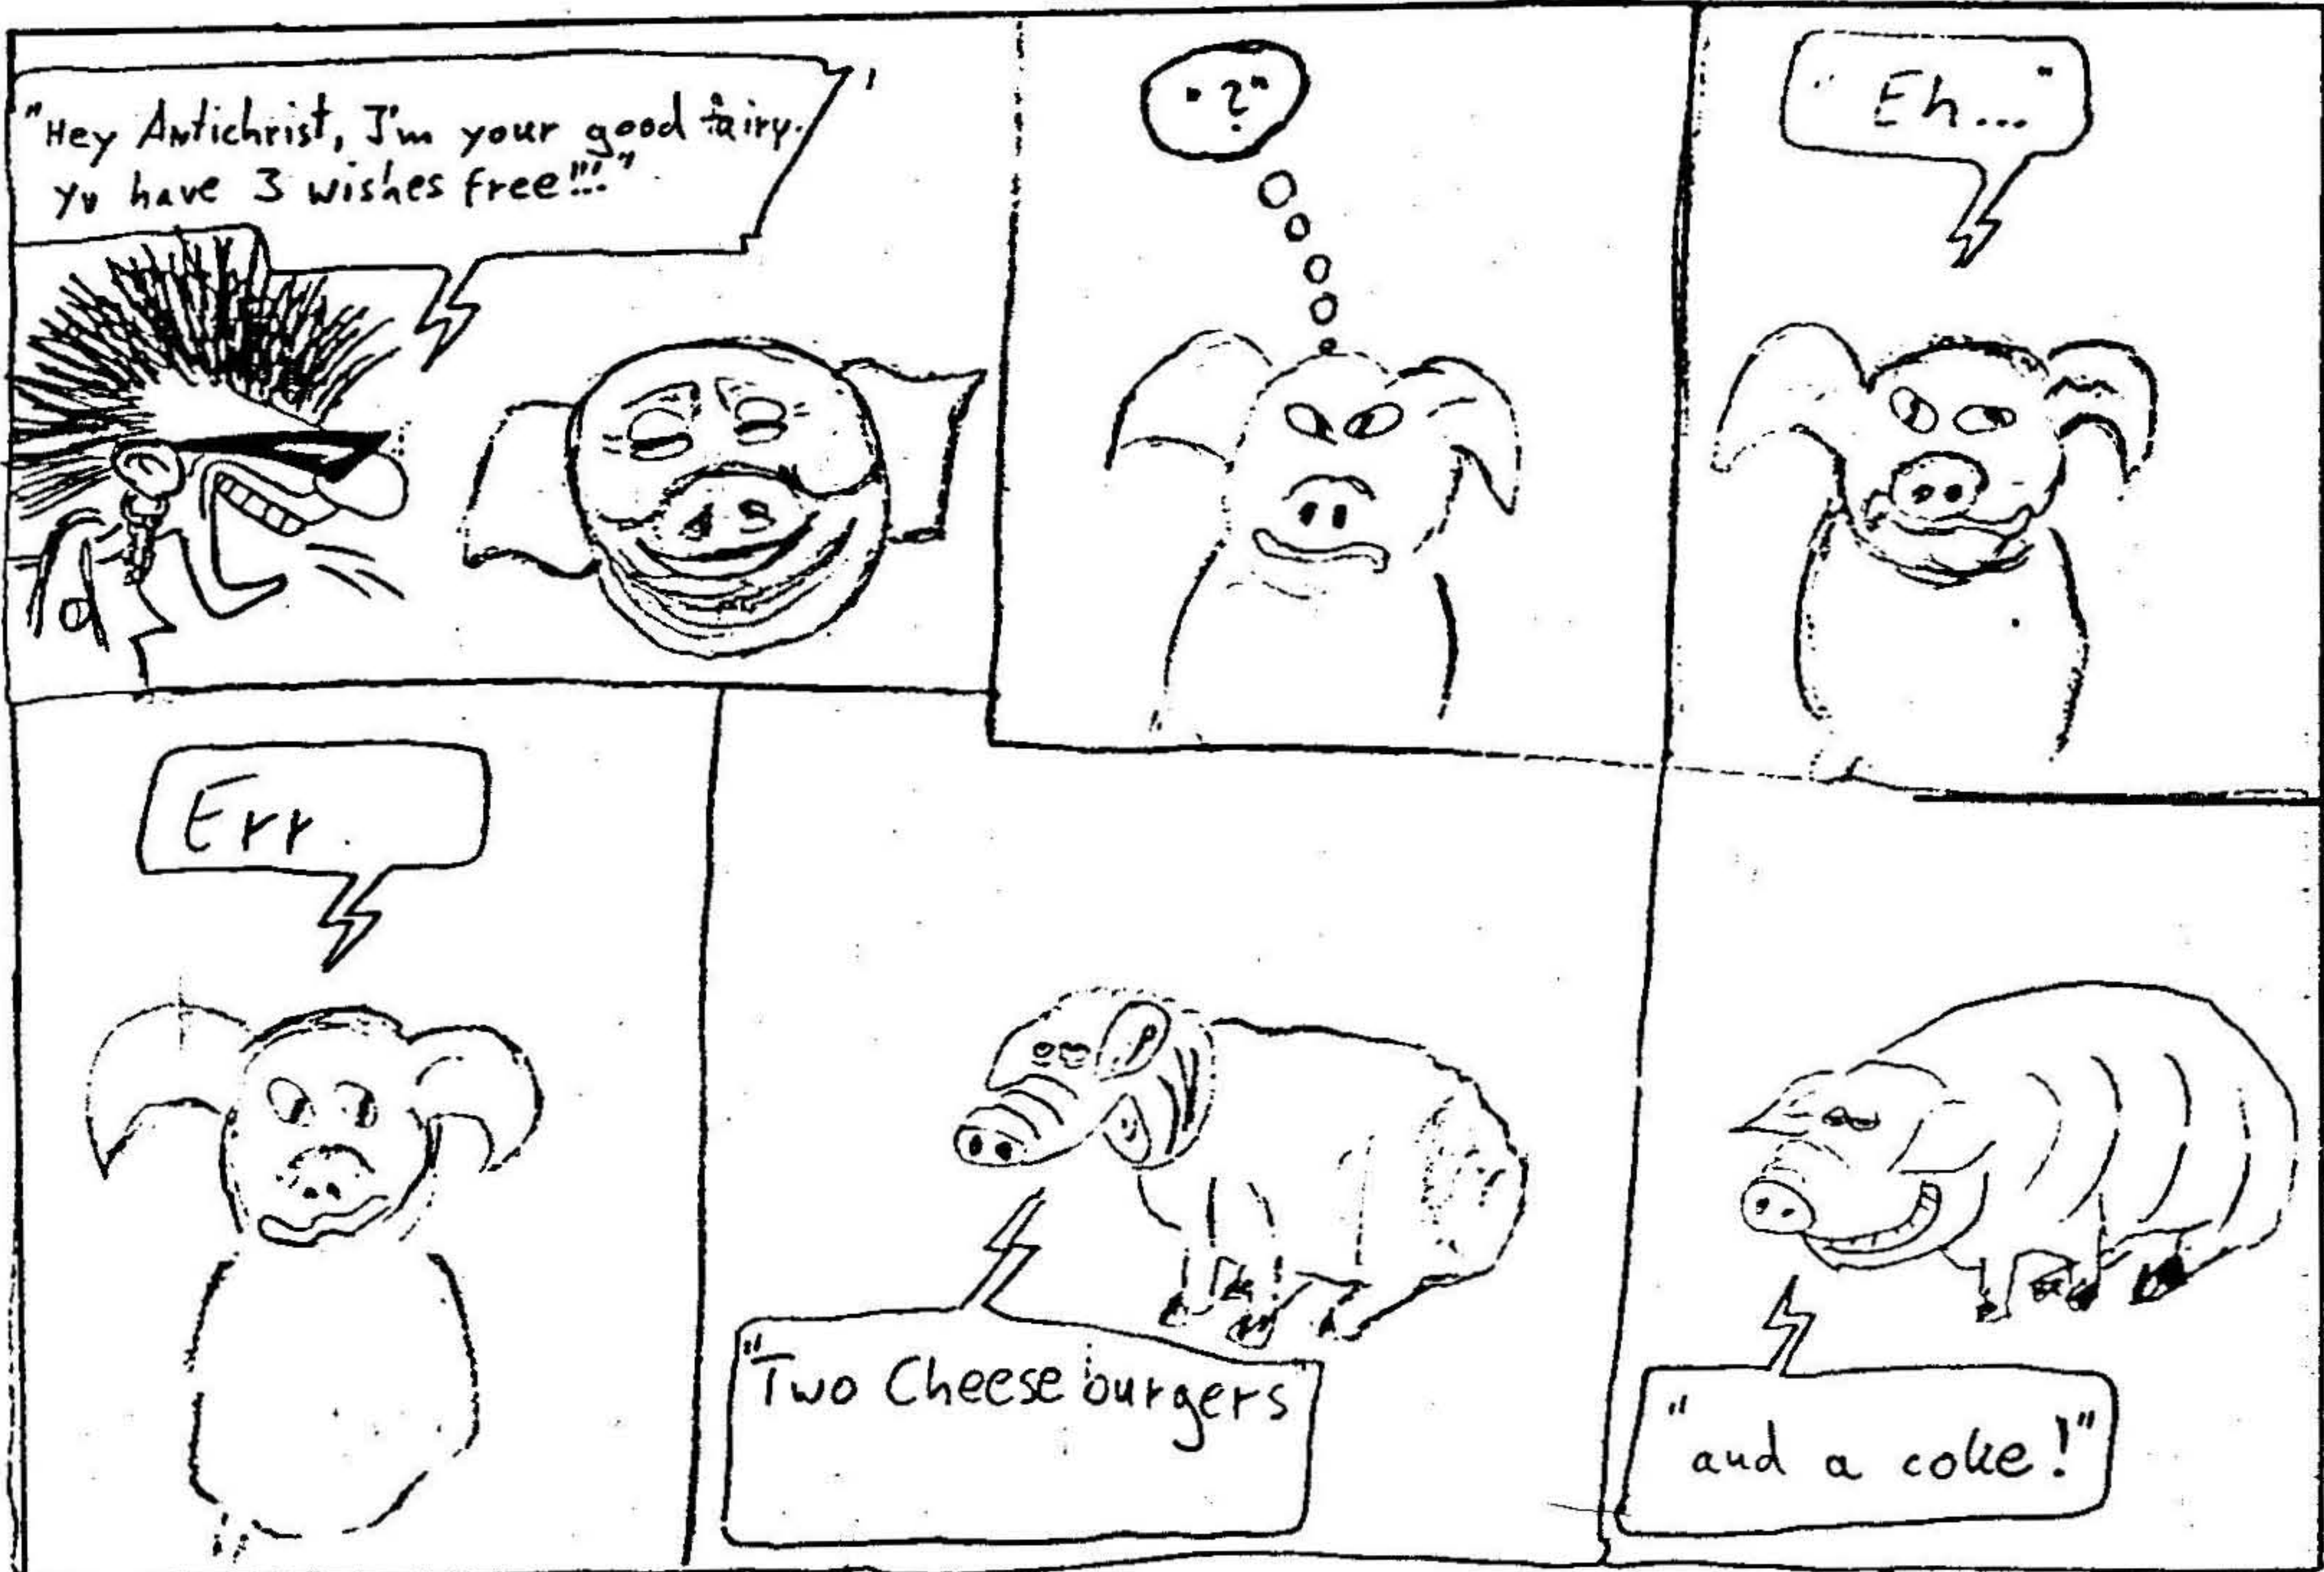

NEWS and GOSSIP

Well... this month we got some real problems concerning this chapter! All news which were written on Vote-Sheets are old and dusted. So I thought of making a different kind of News-Chapter: "What happened the last months?". But because of time-problems I had to skip this idea (maybe in da next issue!). I am really very sorry about the lack amount of news. I called around to get some, but nobody helped me (snif). And as I didn't got a modem... Nevertheless: enjoy them!

- Sunrise was rebuilt by nearly all ex-Oregon and ex-Dream members. Oregon and Dream are dead now...
- Double Artestry/Dominators Design joined Sunrise but is still in Visual Reality
- The Audience left Sunrise to join Extreme
- There was never a real Coop between Sunrise and Oxyron. It was only for three days!!
- Artwork Factories is the new Graphix-label of Sunrise
- Atomic Flash/Sunrise renamed into The Cult
- Sunrise got a board together with Deathsector. Name and Number? eh? dudiduuuu.
- Brainbombs are dead! Most of them builed up Rawguys. Misfit is now a Rawguys mag.
- Baboons are rebuild by some guys (also some real Baboons are back).
- Effect and Astec are in Coop.
- Tiger and Maduplec/Nato joined Crest, also Deek and Bizzmo/GP did so. Crest is going strong these days! (Ed.: old and dusted...)
- A-Team and Chaos #1 build up together Varsity.
- Traitors are dead.
- Pseudomist/ex-Brainbombs was Tyree of Success. Now he left da scene.
- Extreme and Magic Eye (ex-X-Large) joined

- Rawguys
- Slash left Weird to join Lotu.
- Hooper left Weird to join Climax
- Tracknit left Weird, renamed into TMM and joined Abyss Connection.
- There is a "war" between the Update-Editors and Akrak, because Update tested the Akrak-mag Dynasty and slagged on it like hell (hehe)... So Akrak started the war by doing an anti-Update-Intro (any similarities to GP?). (Ed.: Who the hell cares about such a shit?)
- Dominators Design is dead. The members build up Visual Reality (it is still a subgroup of da Dom). Duke is the leader.
- Silent & Tricky left Dominators (and da scene?)
- New Dominators leader are: Cosmo & Animal
- Replay colour should come out on 14.2.92. After this issue (Ed. already 4 month delayed...) the Replay Colour will be dead. Also Bullet Proof will die. Together they build up a new Papermag named Addicted Drug. (Ed. We'll see what really happens...)
- Rough left Chromance and joined Success

Reactions

Maybe you noticed it already, but I'm one of those dudes, who can't stand those silly reactions like "your mag is the best! Go on producing it." As I don't like them, I won't print them. The result is that this corner is very short. Never care! Write critical reactions. Don't think that I don't want to hear that u all like this mag! No, no! I just don't want to print it! Ok? (go on telling me, if you like it!)

Hello Mike! (...) Also thanks for your papermag. It's cool, but please don't send it anymore! Here are some reasons: If we take a disk-mag and a milestone, then I can read nearly the same! (of coz' not the same, but the same objects!). A papermag should contain pictures of scene-dudes, painting-competition, pic.-jokes etc., that a disk-mag for free can't do! Hope you can see my point of view? (...)

(Matrix/Collusion)

Hi Matrix! Thanks for your reaction! Yes, I can see your problems. But we don't want to print photos, coz' every little papermag does it! Why should we do it too? And most of the photo-print-qualities are worse! If we would print photos (beside: we had already three) the quality wouldn't be better! Milestone is a mag, which needs some time to read (I hope so). And it entertains! (or??) And this are the reasons for buying it. If you don't agree, I can't help you. But your point of view is understandable!

This "reaction" stands for several we got:
Get rid of those lame game-tests!

(xyz/ab)

Hi xyz! Well, I said it already! We got several reader-sections. The most readers are sceners. But there are some, who like to know something about new games. And for those readers, we print the game-tests. Ok.?

This reaction is dedicated to Dense/Hysteric: Yo Pals, here is Slash of Weird speaking to ya. Before Milestone I saw also one papermag, Bullet Proof. But I must say, that I like Milestone much more than Bullet Proof. Milestone has a superb outfit, contains also really interesting articles (also the two about Guns'n'Roses are cool) and I think, 2.-DM are not too much for this piece of work. I'll read Milestone a long time, I think, and I hope also that Milestone will never die. Keep up that fucking cool standard and ya'll climb to the top. I'm sure!

(Slash/nov: Lotus)

Hi Slash! Cooooool reaction indeed! Yo Dense, now you know, why we got into the charts of the "Addy-Book" (hehehe).

January '92

Well, this time a report done by the god himself! The almighty main-editor of Milestone! ME! Mike/Sunrise. Hmm. It was the first time that I drove to this famous place...

The horror began as I had to stand up at 6.00 o'clock in the morning (on a saturday! argh!). Two strong coffees later I was ready to start. At first I drove to Rosbach to pick up Sir Maniac/Hysteric. Well, I was so early that I had to wait 10 minutes till he arrives at the meeting point. Then we drove to a little town near Rosbach (sorry, I forgot the name) to collect ANS/Spirit. All happened without any problems (what did you expect). I think we needed about 3 hours to get to the dutch border (=Venlo). It isn't easy to find the party-place! I really must admit this (if there hadn't been a ANS and Sir Maniac who both were in Venlo before, I would never have found it (english grammer...I hate it)). Well, when we arrived I got a little shock... Hundreds of Lamigas and only 6 sixtys. Argh! The first guys I met (I'm speaking in singular, coz' I don't know what the Sir and ANS did) were Argos/Sunrise, Dense/Hysteric, Barteter/Hysteric and Gefjon/Sunrise, Cruise/Abyss Connection. There were some others, but my brain is like a sieve. Later on a lot of Sunriser's arrived: The Grimmir, Bogy and The Cult (we also expected Nyarlathotep, but as his driver didn't drive, he didn't come). Also The Communist and The Majesty (both X-Ray) showed up. You may wonder, why I'm writing this? Well, this were nearly all germans who were presented (well I didn't mention Jack Alien/Who knows?, Lance/AC, Craze/Hysteric, The Reaper/Tropic, a guy from TRL-Des/Security and some others). All in all, not very much, I suppose!!! Was there any cool stuff? Haha! I gathered the heavy amount of THREE disks with new stuff!! Great, really! The Paradizer's tried to fix their latest demo "Wet Dreams II", but they failed. If you look at the stuff it was totally lame!!! But as I met a lot of cool guys, it was worth driving this long way! The only problem was, that I had to drive and couldn't join the others in boozing and so on... shit! (The Communist looked very funny after he had smoked a bit dope - maybe some photos in Bullet Proof). Also the fact, that I met the famous Cruise was a cool thing indeed. The tour back happened without any problems (I arrived at 10 o'clock in the evening in the famous south of Hessen) I think I'll come again in march (but I won't take disks with me!)

Silicon Report

21/22 Dec. 1991, Utrecht/Holland

First we went to Ymuiden to fetch Gefjon/Sunrise, Prejudice/Spirit and Satcom/SCS so it was a bit full in the car (6 persons). Then we TRIED to find the party place, which was not too easy. When we arrived, we first met our friends Communist, Nigga and Garkeinplan/X-Ray who had arrived before us, although we had given them a wrong route discription (not on purpose...). When we entered the Kindergarden, I only saw a few friends (Trash/Sunrise, Dubl/Paradize, Barteter/Hysteric, someone from Hysteric, someone from Obituary and some more). Anyway, the rooms were everything but empty, of course, mainly dutch guys had come... all together something between 200 and 300 I'd say. The usual crap started, some beers, some joints, some beers, some joints, talk to friends... At 18.00h we had to bring Gefjon to the train, as she had to visit a local birthday party. It was quite strange to drive, as we were more or less a little stoned... Bogy/Sunrise was driving like a suicide candidate... On the way back, we visited some coffee shops, where we bought some shit and space cake. It came how it had to come, first Communist got the kick and started to jump around the car for 15 minutes or so then someone from Amigo (?) couldn't feel his legs anymore then Bogy & I had to visit the sleeping room to rest a little, as we were unable to stay vertical... In the sleeping room, there were already some guys boasting around, how cool they were. Strange. Back in business, we went down again to meet Eierwolf/Genital*Project. Unfortunately we had to notice, that we missed the striptease performance for a few minutes. They were just showing the video, when I passed along (was a kind of Jolanda Flachtitte, last year's bitch was much better!!). Somehow I didn't get things managed anymore, so I went to sleep for 2 hours. After waking up, I went downstairs to have something to drink and was told, that Airwolf had stolen Triggers computer... strange! Later on the demo competition took place. Competing groups were e.g. House, PRZ, Obituary, Tricol (?), BML and some more I think. Blackmail won of course, the GFX by Hein Design were 100% brilliant. Result: (1) Blackmail, (2) Paradize, (3) House. An hour or so later most people went off, so we slowly prepared to leave... We gave Ashive (=Barteter) a lift back and arrived home at around 19.00h. Summary: Same procedure like this summer, only some faces were missed Cool anyway This was what you call an organized party some present guys: far too many, but mainly dutch, belgiums and germans (no norwegians or hungarians like last summer) Hopefully this one will be repeated next summer

With this issue we're going to start another cool thing! We try to print as much identities as we can get! Well, this is cool, because we really can get much identities without much costs! Just filling in a little sheet (easy to copy!). This aren't real interviews and not one of those boring id-sheets. Here you got a mixed thing! Just enjoy reading it... And remember: If you've filled one sheet, never fill a second one, coz' we won't print it!

Demo (P)Reviews

Well, this time I thought about doing a demo-corner in which all demos of the last months would have been tested. Hmm, I didn't guess, what work that means, and I think that this will be the last time, that we did such a thing. It will also be the last time, that (pnm) did some demo-tests for us. He decided to write for Replay in the future. May he rest in peace. Astaroth will do the tests next time (he is a coder, so he knows a bit more about the technique). All demo reviews are based on the opinion of the tester and everybody can think about the demos in another way!

Volfied

Volfied is a kind of successor from the in the year 1984 realeased game called 'Stix'. The game-play is the same. At first you see a spaceship which lands on a unknown planet. Then it's time to play. On the screen is now something like rock from another planet. On this rock are some strange creatures. Your aim is to fence in as much rock as possible. If you fence in a creature it gives you some extra points! But don't get touch with them, 'cause it costs a live! If you've 80% from the rock fenced, you are in the next level.

This game is funny, but it could be better. The sound is complete missing and the graphik isn't the best. So is Volfied a average game which makes some fun.

Euro Boss

Euro Boss is a soccer-manager game which is written in Basic. Indeed the graphik and the sound is missing, but it's nevertheless a very good manager game! After you've choosen a level between 1 and 5 you can choose an internation elite club (why is Bayern Munich in it? Strange!). Then you can play about 2 or 3 Points. Then appeared the extensive menu. There are: Pick up your team (*should be clear), Training (*clear, too), Ticket Price (*standing place 1-10, *seating place 1-20), sell player (*clear), Status (*how much crowded etc.), Progress (*which places did you prove), actual Leguae tables (*clear), Bank (*how much money do you have), Staff (*there you can rent a coach), Ground (*there you can develop your stadion), Next team (*your team and this from the adversary will be compared), Edit (*you can edit your team or player names), buy a player (*clear), save game (*Attention, only on datasette!!!). Then you can play the match. On the screen is no graphik but above there is a great report. It tells you how often your team shot at the goal. How much did you've got the ball (in percent!), who shot the goals. And you can substitute! This all makes you forget, that the grphik and sound are missing!

Plural

Plural is a shoot'em up for two players. When you start the game the first thing what you can see is a black screen with two eggs in its middle. These two eggs are the battleships, and the little white points in the black background are stars. When the game starts it's the best to switch on the autofire. During the levels different enemies are coming, and you can get powerful guns. The end-enemy is in all levels the same, but he becomes from level to level bigger. The background changes every level, but the graphic is during all the levels only average. Sound exists only in the wonderful end-sequence.

My personal opinion. I think the game is really not bad, but it is not so good, that I must say that everybody need this game in his box, but the end-sequence is really one of the bests I've seen in the last months. Result:

Graphic 65 Sound (when existing) 80

LP-Tests

Die Toten Hosen

Carnival in Rio (Punk was)

Germans best Punkrockband is back with a new Album. But this Album is different to the other Hosen albums: It's the first Album on which they sing in english. The second realeasd Song is now 'Carnival in Rio'. This song, and two others were taken up with the legendary train-gangster Ronald Biggs! Ronald invited the five Punks to his Birthday in Rio. In only one week they recorded the songs(writtenby Ronald Biggs) 'Carnival in Rio' and 'No one is innocent', 'Police on my back' (*this song was already realeased on the Hosen-Live Album 'Bis zum bitteren Ende'). The three songs are full with guitar-power. Therefore nothing for 'New Kidz' or -anything- fans!! It's a pity that the songs are very short. Although it's a Maxi-CD (the longest song is 3.08 min. !!!). Interesting is the cover where you can see some photos from Ronald Biggs's escape after the 30.000.000 Dollar Coup !!! I think that the songs are worth buying.

Queen/The show must go on

Now, again a spezial Maxi-CD-Test. But now unfortunately nothing good. It's the last realeased song in the life of Queen-singer Freddie Mercury. He died in the end of November because of aids!! But now enough of that. On the CD are 3 songs (including some crap talking by Queen). 'The show must go on' is a excellent combination between classic and rock. To mention is, that the two other songs 'Keep yourself alive' and 'Body Language' are 10 and 20 (!!) years old. And they are only average. The other part of the Maxi is 'Queen Talks' where you can hear some stupid sayings from Queen. Now, it's a hard question to buy or not. I think that you must decid if it's worth to buy one very excellent song and two average songs or not. ...but the show must go on unfortunaly without Freddie Mercury!!

R.E.M./The Best Of R.E.M.

This LP is, how the name says, a sampler of the best songs of R.E.M. But it's not the newest, so many very good songs like 'Shiny happy people' or 'Losing my religion' aren't on this sampler. Because of these hits, R.E.M has been one of THE Newcomer of the year. So they won on the MTV-Award six awards and on other three categorys they were nomineted. Some songs are like the old, good Rock & Roll. The best songs are 'The one I love' and 'It's the end of the world as we know it'. The other songs are better average. I think it would have been better to release the LP later and put some better songs on it.

Diskmag Reviews

SOULNEWS #11/Compaignons

Intro: Quite simple. But as this isn't a demo, it's o.k!

Menu: They got a new one! The ugly charset is kicked out (luckily!). You're able to turn fast-load and muzak on/off (muzak is quite cool...). Whole chapter-choose-system is joy-controlled.

Text-Part: very simple coded! The text-flashing is terrible! The idea with the little menu (where you can decide, whether you want to go back to the menu or not) is ripped out of Remark!

Chapters are:

Editorial: usual crap (credits, instructions, "vote for us, coz we rule"...))

News+Rumors (1+2): starts with "Did you know"'s. Strange! They got quite a lot of news! I don't want to judge them, as I'm not caring about "elite" or non-elite news!

Interview 1: done with Grapple/WoW. Only the usual questions. I suppose it was done with a sheet... not by phone!

Interview 2: done with CBA/TRC. The same as above

Adverts 1+2+3: well... what to say? much addresses! charts: "very long charts" (every category about 40 places, but they didn't print complete charts (all single-charts are missing) because of time-prob's.

Reactions: A lot of "slimy" reactions ("your mag is No.1"...). Only one critical, but this one was meant to the old outfit.

Film+Music News: Music News & one film-test. Both interesting I think (but more film-tests would be better...)

Venlo-meeting: a Venlo report and infos about the meeting (how to reservate a.s.o.)

SCL-Party: usual party-report. I like it party-invitations: party-infos about the "Dresden Copyparty"

About Compaignons: I don't know what this chapter should be! A inter-CPS-Info chapter or what? I think its complete nonsense to print this stuff in an extra chapter. Drop that, guys!

All in all: Soulnews is one of the typical "read-it-and-scratch-it" mags! There is simply nothing special in this mag.

Rating: 58 out of 100 (below average!)

EXPLORER #15/Antic

Intro: Whats this? Well, I don't know why, but Expl.15 hasn't got any intro. They got some prob's with this issue. Maybe this is the reason... Who knows?

Menu: You get into the menu by pressing joy-up (the mag is completely joy-controlled!). Then you can choose the chapters (fire...load...read) But you can't get out of the menu, if you're in by accident!

Text-Part: While reading a strange music is playing. But maybe another tester likes it...? The page-flip-effect is cool and fast enough! Also the "graphix" (an Explorer-Logo) is cool. They didn't got any flashings (...this is an advantage!)

Chapters are:

Editorial: the same procedure as in every mag. Instructions, credits no "vote for us, coz we rule" That's good!

News: What did you expect? News? Yeah! You're right! They don't print lamer-news. Why? They're funny! At the end some strange jokes...

Charts: normal charts. Except the most-useless chart: The "best scene country". Hey! Europe is ruling, o.k.?

Addies: the "every-mag-got-it-and-everybody-reads-it" chapter

Nagging: -reactions. Every reaction has a little critic! Not only "lets slime" reactions -Numbers of all Euro + US boards they know! Kewl idea to collect them!

Reviews: only one demo reviewed: Brutality. But the review is done by a code, who knows what he is talking about (not like Milestone... but we'll change this!) A big "+"!

All in all: I personally like Explorer very much. Don't know why. Maybe because you can read it by leaning back without 100's of flashings and much too long waiting-time for the next page or chapter (not like in Emmanuelle for example!). It's easy to handle, short and intereting to read!

Rating: 75 out of 100 (o.k. (a "good" with a little "-"), because of too less text).

SPOTLIGHT #3/X-Ray

Intro: The assfucking cool X-Ray-Intro with the red stars! Simply mega-cool! I love it!

Menu: You can choose between Key- or Joy-control. If you choose "joy", the mag is completely joy-controlled. Press "Fire" to get into the chapter-choose-menu. The whole outfit is very simple done, but in a special way cool. I don't know how to describe it. I also like da tune very much (but you know... a matter of taste).

Text-Part: The page-flip-effect is fast but simple (not as cool as in Explorer).

Chapters are:

We about us: Not the usual crap. He (The Majesty) philosophies about the reason for doing this mag and so on (like I do always...). Funny to read! Then he is slagging on OMG (and his well-known behaviour), about Bitmania... Well, really funny to read!

Charts: What to say? Spotlight published the "overall-charts 1991". Hard job to count, I suppose

News: "elite"-News. Under every single news, the source (where the news comes from) is printed. Frightend of troubles you may got, or what? A principle of journalism is: Don't give the name of your informant! Think about it!

Interview: The best interviews I've ever seen in any mag! Real interviews (not only: fill-the-sheet-in!) Done with Extremist & Rick of Empire. Simply te most interesting interviews I've ever read!

Mixed up: The "lutscher of the year" is given to several groups for several things. As he wrote that this is his very own opinion, I won't comment on it. Then a list of all (really all? I miss da Lore of Arts!) Fake-labels is uplisted. At least a (long) article (full of information) about Blue boxing

Did you know. Funny? Funny! A very important chapter for every mag

Adverts: Burp As usual.

All in all: Without a doubt one of the top-ten mags in da scene (and definately the best one, which I tested this month!) Not because of da outfit (which is really a bit simple), but because of the text!

Rating: 88 (good - the outfit)

SCS+DOM-Party

14-16 Dec. 1991, Papenburg/Germany

Some rumours were going on about this event. Everybody you called up told you, that it should take place in a huge skyscraper... It was not too easy to find the place, but when we finally arrived we had to notice that it was only a shopping hall with three floors. The party took place in a big room in the back of the building, which would suck several hundred visitors. But when we entered there were only about 50... The visitors of the Venlo meeting (taking place the same day) were expected to show up later, but after all there weren't more than 60 or 70 guys. Luckily there were only a few lamers, so the atmosphere was o.k. After organizing some beers we placed our asses somewhere and looked around... Somehow every second guy, you talked to seemed to be from Success, while from Dominators I could only make out JD and Erotyc. Some stupid idiots were supplying the whole room with extremely loud music which was quite brain killing. As we arrived on the second party day, we could see some poor suckers like Aslive/Bombs who were looking quite tired... Some guys were copying, some were working on various stuff (some even on demo parts), the rest was just hanging around... Luckily I had some dope with me, so we went into a corner to have a joint or two with some SCS guys and Steel/Padua. Later on Communist/X-Ray joined us. Short time later he tried to visit the toilet, but missed the door... During the afternoon Eierwolf/Genesungs*Project showed up and made his usual jokes like shouting Nazi-slogans and pumping up the volume... In the evening the drinking competition should take place, but it was incredibly lame as they had to play this wannabe-game called "Quarters"... The only one who got drunk at our table was Tyree/SCS. Some more joints, some more beers, suddenly it was 24.00h and the room should be closed. Some guys went to visit the disco in the shopping mall, we went to the sports hall where we were supposed to sleep. About 20 people were there, playing stupid ball games and that stuff. We had some more joints, but after some time I had enough and crept towards my sleeping bag. Next day there was hardly anything going on, only a handful guys were left. Communist offered us a lift back home, of course we agreed as our driver had left the evening before. Summary: Not many people, but a nice atmosphere somehow. Following groups were present for sure DOM, SCS, Oregon, Crazy, Bombs, X-Ray, Gummi*Penis, Padua, Pulsar, Vagabonds, Hysteric, Cyberpunk and the rest I didn't notice. Probably DOM+SCS V2 won't take place as there were not enough visitors. But it was worth the trip anyway.

Bonzai-Party

26.-28.12.1991 Aars/Denmark

We started off for the party at 01.00h Friday morning, so I hadn't slept at all that night and my driver Communist was also quite tired. After passing the German/Danish border I took over the wheel, but after some time I fell asleep for some seconds (no joke) so that we almost crashed. The party took place in a small village called Aars and the place was a kind of exhibition hall (plenty much room). The hardware relation Amiga-64 was at least 70:30, but while the average Amiga-user even has sex with his machine, the 64 user recognizes that there are other things in life, so the atmosphere in the 64 corner was quite relaxed. The first friends we met were Jack Daniels and Numskull, but I'm not going to bore you with a presence list, because EVERYBODY was there (apart from the dutch guys and the party animals from Panoramic 64 division). After an hour or so strange noises from the BONZAI corner forced us to walk around a little (country music... yeuch!). First we checked out the snack bar. The prices were ok, until I was told that they had to be paid in danish and not in italian currency. At least there were some real beauties working there. Later Akay/Sunrise and his brother Skywize/Vision arrived and we spent the rest of the day with drinking, watching stupid stuff and real silly things. In the evening some people started to puke around, Dragon among them of course. Early next morning we went to the sleeping room which was a big hall with solid ground. Bah. Three hours later we were back in business. Due to the pukers from the last night, the organizers stopped selling alcohol. Later on it was prohibited to consume any kind of alcohol inside the hall and everybody coming in was checked. Luckily Akay'n'I found a secret door. After raping the next supermarket we did what people usually call "having fun". On the video channel the organizers showed hot movies (like T2 and Hot Shots), sodomy pornos and home made comedy videos. We talked to the girlie of MZK/TRC who was the only good looking female I saw and had some more beers. After it got dark some Amiga guys came back from a pub, where they had lost some of their teeth to the locals. So we put up a gang of around 40 people to have revenge. We couldn't find the locals so we just damaged what we found (fences etc.) and made loud noises, just like children, but it was funny! I met someone from Design (Amiga) during this trip who asked for a lift back. He was quite afraid of the police, because he was only sixteen and had no papers with him. Some Amiga guys had good stuff to smoke and when I went to bed at 06.00h I felt a little dizzy. At 07.00h all sleepers were kicked out of the hall. Strange! During that hour I was asleep, the democompetition took place. Well-known result being (1) Light, (2) Camelot, (3) Spirit. Some Amiga demos were quite nice, although it was mainly the same old stuff (lets use the graphix-library... haha!). We left around lunch time. Summary: Sorry for no "then I talked to XYZ" report, as everybody was present it would take too much space and "party reports" suck anyway. The organization of the party was almost PERFECT, but you could expect that Best party this winter. See you on the Horizon.

The Ultimate ALC-Test Part 3

Here we are back with another part of da ruling ALC-TEST! This time the Gräfenhausen-Section had to go through the hell (coz' Dave gets lazier and lazier the older he gets). It was really the horror itself (you'll see this later). And at the end we all had a damned fuckin' crazy taste in our mouth because of some terrible beers! Pascal looked like a skeleton, although it were only 3 bottles of alc for three guys. It wasn't the amount of alc, but the quality, which smashed us to the ground (maybe I'll publish a photo from Pascal in the next issue... hehehe). All in all I wouldn't drink seven of the eight beers one time more. Just read on to know why! The testers were: Pascal "Jim Beam" Kraus, Torsten "Jimi Hendrix" Hartmann and myself (Mike!). I translated as much as possible (sorry, but something is written in "hessisch" and very hard to translate).

Some explanations to the test:

Name/Slogan (N/S): should be clear

l: Liter (b=bottle/t=tin)

X: How much Alc, eh? (in percent)

Price/Quality (P/Q): Do you get an equivalent for your money?

Commentary (C): should be clear

Points (P): A kind of "All in all" (from all testers).

pa: this comment is from Pascal; t: this comment is from Torsten; m: this comment is from Mike

LP-Tests

Nirvana/Nevermind

I think now the latest has heard something from "Nirvana". Nirvana is the band who climbs up the charts with their smashing hit "Smells like teen spirit". This song is an outtake from their second album "Nevermind". It is rough, uncut music; a mix between Punk and Metal with its own singing-style. Side one of this record breaks through with songs like "Smells like teen spirit", "In bloom", "Come as you are" and "Polly". That's the best from side one. With "Polly" Nirvana shows, that they know how to play good, tender ballads. Side two is not as good as side one, but songs like "Stay away" and "On a plain" improve the level of this side. All in all is "Nevermind" a good, successful album, not everybody's taste but this record is a good example for this new music-style coming from Seattle

INXS/Live Baby Live

The australians, who are at this time many years in music business, had given with this album a brilliant example for good live-music. On the album are their greatest hits like the classic ones "Need you tonight" and "Suicide blonde". There are beautiful ballads like "By my side" and "Mystify". New songs who may get an hit tomorrow like "Shining Star" are also on this album. Those who likes good music from an experienced band, shouldn't pass buying this record.

John Lee Hooker/Mr. Lucky

J.L.Hooker is Mr.Lucky. What the veteran of blues had produced here is really worth listening. The level of this new album is not so high as from the record "The Healer", but if you like blues, you must get it. The basis-instrument is the guitar, that shows the lit of the guest-stars on this album: There are van Morrison, Carlos Santana, Johnny Winter, Keith Richards and a few more. I miss a little bit the harmonica from John Hammond... he plays it only two times in this album. J.L.Hooker plays the blues, like it was in the early 50's, not influenced from the new pop-style. Just like it was in the southern states. The result is rough, unadulterated blues who tastes like dust of the road.

(all done by pk)

Genesis/We can't dance

"We can't dance" is da new album from Genesis, and I think it's one of da best, they ever made. One song from this album, "No son of mine", was on place one in da charts in England and in da Top 10 in Europe. But there is not only this song, which is very good. There are many other good songs like "I can't dance", "Driving the last spike", "Dreaming while you sleep", "Tell me why" and "Since I lost you". For all Genesis fans: You must get this LP!

(by our guest-writer Oliver Bock)

Witzecke (Jokes)

Again a big sorry to all our non-german readers! Again some "Manta"-Jokes and again not untranslatable! Just turn the page... Germans: Los gehts:

92(!) Treffen sich zwei Mantafahrer. Sagt der eine: "Ey, letztens sacht mir doch son GTI-Typ, ich hätt'n IQ von 5". Sagt der andere: "Wußt ich doch schon imma, daß deine Kiste viel zu langsam ist!"

93. Kommt ein Mantafahrer in die Kneipe und bestellt sich ein Bier. Nach einer Weile kommt der Ober und bringt ihm das Bier, allerdings nur zur Hälfte gefüllt. Fragt der Mantafahrer: "Ey, mann, warum is' denn das Glas nur halbvoll?" Darauf der Ober: "Tja, das ist eben ein Bier, nur tiefergelegt."

94. Ein Mantafahrer zum anderen: "Ey mit der Golfkrise ist ja voll schlimm, wa?" "Ey, stimmt ey. Man kriegt nicht mal mehr'n Passat!"

95. Fahrn zwei Mantafahrer stechen auf der Landstraße. Kurbelt der rechte das Fenster runter: "Ey Mann, lass mich auch mal inne Mitte, Alter!"

96. Was bekommt ein Mantafahrer im Winter? Einen weissen Arm!

97. Was ist das Lieblingstier des Mantafahrers? Der Tune-Fisch

98. Warum ist bei den Mantas die Fahrertüre an den Scharnieren nur eingehängt? Damit der Fahrer, wenn er aussteigt, sich die Fahrertüre über die linke Schulter hängen kann!

99. Warum haben Opel Manta's immer bis zu 16 Halogen Scheinwerfer im Kühlergrill? Die sind das Gegengewicht für den Auftrieb, der durch das Vakuum im Kopf des Fahrers entsteht!

100. Was ist das kleinste am Manta? Das Gehirn des Fahrers. Was ist das größte am Manta? Die Oberweite der Beifahrerin.

101. Wie beult man einen Manta wieder aus? Man dreht die Kenwoodanlage einfach voll auf...

102. Warum sieht man immer häufiger Mantas mit höhergelegtem Dach? Damit die 500-Watt-Stereo-Power-Boxen auf die Rücksitze passen.

103. Warum rosten beim Manta die Türen so schnell durch? Achselnasse!

(alle von Faroul/Giants)

Nuja, das waren wohl entgeltig alle Mantawitze, die ich zur Verfügung hatte. Ich hoffe es hat Spaß gemacht (und 103 ist ja auch keine niedrige Zahl). Ciao!

Did you know,

For the second time: our beloved did-you-knows. I'm sorry for the lot of "Dyk"s which are about us (the editorship mainly) but as you didn't send me enough... Hope that this will be better next time. Thanks to Larry/Effect for sending some! Here we go:

-that Lash/Accuracy is the same person as Voyage/Effect?

-that this isn't true and they are two persons?

-that not many people care about this?

-that CBC/TRO (a local lamer here in Darmstadt) uses to say that Mike/Sunrise is a "lahmer" (he can't even speak out the word lamer...)?

-that frenchlessons are boring?

-that latinlessons are a good source for Did you knows?

-that Agnus is also latin and means "Schaf" in german (remember the Big Agnus in all Amigas...)?

-that the musicgroup "Wet Wet Wet" made their new album in Suisse?

-that the "New kids on the block" want five bodyguards on a gig (for each lamer an own bodyguard)?

-that here in Darmstadt you are able to buy a T-Shirt on which you can see a big stone with blood and hands under it? Above stands: "New kids under the block"

-that Larry/Effect is able to spread wares over the whole world (Europe, Asia, Australia, Middle-East, Africa...)?

-that "TBB" stands on all cars coming from Tauberbischofsheim?

-that many old legends are rebuild these days? And many of them die a few days after rebuilding?

-that there is about 4% phosphorus-acid (Phosphorsäure) in every Coca Cola bottle?

-that in 11 Coca Cola are about 38 pieces of sugar?

-that Mike/Sunrise and Maze of Torment/Giants build up their own rock-group: Haystacks? There are a few songs finished...

-that Maze of Torment/Giants likes very difficult books about Chemistry, Maths or anything like that?

-that the average telephone-bill of Astaroth/Varsity is about 350.-DM (180 US Dollar!)?

-that Nothingface/Pulsar+Clique was contacted by a guy from Algerian?

-that Wild Thing/Hysteric is a DeeJay

-that Eazy-E/Alive is a member of the Freiwillige Feuerwehr near Stuttgart?

-that QCF (Australia) still releases their mag "OCF FM" on tape and disk (featuring dance music, interviews, aussie charts and more) and still not many guys from Europe orders it? Do it better and write to Rocky Kid/QCF, P.O.Box 216, Rockhampton, Queensland, Australia, 4700. Just send a blank C-60 tape and a disk (5 1/4). -that the german post returned seventeen sendings to Sir Maniac/Hysteric because of "risk of injuries" (Verletzungsgefahr)?

-that T.R.S./Abyss Connection got a heavy injury at his hand after he tried to hit a friend for talking shit?

-that Cruise/A.C. gets telephone-terror after he kicked a guy out of Abyss?

-that Mike/Sunrise's first words after the last released Milestone were: "It's a really shit-feeling to release a cool mag!" (Ed. Hey Jens, I can't remember this!)

-that Bomb Jack/Blaze, Mike/Sunrise, Maze of Torment/Giants, James Dean/Giants and some other cool guys build up a soccer-team, named "Gräfenhausen Tigers" and won the DRK Cup 1991

-that Bomb Jack/Blaze and Mike/Sunrise are great fans from the 2.league soccer team called "SV Darmstadt 98"

-that this is definately the last "Did you know"?

Special thank going to

Competition

Yes, you are right! We enlarged the deadline of our little cover-competition! All talented disk-cover-designer should take their chance now!

PAINT A MILESTONE-DISK-COVER!!

Every cover will be ranked by the Milestone-editions. The best three covers will be printed in Milestone and spread over the whole scene as a kind of propaganda for this mag.

What should the readers find on this cover?

Of course our name (Milestone), what you are able to read in this mag, how much it costs (just look on page 2) and where you can get it from (my addy). That's all! The rest can be filled with whatever YOU want! Of course there are some prices:

The Prices

1. a Milestone abo and a pack of Fuji MD2D Disks!
2. a Milestone abo and a pack of No-Name Disks
3. a pack of No-Name Disks

All those who aren't on one of the first three places will get something else (like buttons or something like that).

Take your chance and paint a Milestone-Disk-Cover!

The final Deadline is the 20.03.1992

Hope to receive some more disk-covers!!

LP-TEST

Public Enemy/Apocalypse'91... The enemy strikes black

Yeah, this is The Audience with a nice CD-Test. If you don't like Rap, simply turn the page. Okay, first I'll list up all the titles: 1.Lost at birth; 2.Rebirth; 3.Nighttrain; 4.Can't truss it; 5.I don't wanna be called Yo Nigga; 6.How to kill a Radio Consultant; 7.By the time I get to Arizona; 8.Move; 9.One million Bottlebags; 10.More news at 11; 11.Shut 'em down; 12.A letter to the N.Y.Post; 13.Get the fuck outtadodge; 14.Bring tja noize. I'll start listening the singles. Well this is now "Bring tha noize", recorded together with Anthrax. Yeah, this sound really kixx. Okay. Ratink 9 out of 10. Now we go over to the next single. Wait a second, "Can't truss it" here it is (sucking CD-Player). Yo, cool intro and heavy beat. Did you watch the video on "Yo MTV Raps"? Really nice. Rating 7 out of 10. And now another one. Its "Shut 'em down", a cool song and also cool video (MTV). Hmm, as I'm too lazy to report about all the songs I'll give you the final result... 91 out of 100. If you havn't got this one, you should buy it.

CINEMA-REPORT

Knight moves

with Christopher Lambert

Really cool psychothriller 'bout a chessplayer who is suspected to have killed some pretty girls in a very special way... It isn't sure 'til the end if he was the murderer or not. The murderer plays chess! And every move he make is a killed girl. Everything turned wrong until the professional chessplayer (Christopher Lambert) got arrested and his daughter kidnapped. Cool action!

(TA/XTR)

LATEST NEWS . . .

-Bonzai is dead! All members joined Starion! (Ed.: Huh! This will change something in da charts...)
-X-Ray is dead!! It seems to be that all members joined Enigma (they are going now a "bit" stronger)
-HOK/ex-Action is now in Empire

At least a very special thanks must go to DAVE X-SHAPE for painting this excellent cover! I really love it! Thank you very much!!
